Many thanks to Jake Sherman for being an awesome bench coach and keeping us focused during a tough game in Turlock.

FFF Comes Up Short in Turlock

On March 26th a mix of Flyers and Foxettes set out on a road trip to Stanislaus County Fairgrounds in Turlock to take on The Sintral Valley Derby Girls Sinnocents. This was truly an exciting, action-packed, hard-hitting game from the first jam through to the last. The Sinnocents put up some strong defensive walls making sure FFF worked for every point. Although Foothill played some pretty strong defense as well, paired with impressive jammer performances, it just wasn't enough to take command of the game. The Sinnocents recognized Lil Death Eater, Mo Troublez, Indisgretchen and Hawaiian Lei U Out as MVPs in the game. The Flyer/Foxette combo fell to the Sinnocents 79 – 129.

Fox Finder

This month we recognize our beautiful Blonde Moment-um "Blondie" as our Fox of the Month. Blondie, Melinda Williams, is a busy working mother of 4 handsome boys. She's one of the founding members of FFF and still recalls the day she, Jenny and Mikki sat in a restaurant deciding on the league name and team colors. She is amazed at how far the league has come since that day and how many new family members we've added. Melinda's derby name acknowledges that she definitely has some "major blonde moments and sometimes those blonde moments gain moment-um." She was a tuba player in her high school and college marching bands and also played basketball and water polo. Her most memorable derby moment was the year FFF placed third overall at Attack of the C Squads just one year after placing dead last in the same tournament. Melinda's inspirational quote is "happiness is a choice." Not only does she make the choice to be happy for herself every day, but she also chooses to share and spread that happiness to those around her. That is just one of the many things everybody loves about our Blonde Moment-um.

WHAT'S THE RULING?

LEAD JAMMER

In order to gain the position of lead jammer, the first jammer to exit the front of the pack, having legally passed all blockers at least once, earns the status of "lead jammer." After the initial pass through the pack, each jammer scores a point every time they lap any member of the opposing team. The lead jammer can stop the jam at any time by repeatedly placing both hands on their hips. If the jam is not stopped early, it ends after 2 minutes. Once earned, lead jammer status cannot be transferred to other skaters, but actions such as, being sent to the penalty box can cause it to be lost.

FFF Roller Derby Exhibition NASCAR

NASCAR fans love to watch their favorite driver strap into their four wheels, go fast, turn left, and compete hard. Of course they love to see a little bumping and nudging on the track too, as long as nobody gets hurt. This year, Foothill Foxy Flyers were honored to be part of the entertainment for the infield campers at the Auto Club 400 on March 19th. A dozen of our derby girls and 3 of our derby guys got a chance to show them that roller derby and NASCAR have a lot in common. We drew a sizable crowd who enthusiastically watched us strap on our eight wheels, go fast, turn left, compete hard and bump and nudge a little on the track. Many of these folks had never seen roller derby in person and most became instant fans. They were cheering for their favorite skaters and refs and showing their appreciation for every block, juke and hit during the 30-minute scrimmage. When the demo was over our new fans lined the rink for high-fives, shouting out derby names and numbers of their favorites as we skated around. Many waited around afterwards until we de-gear'd so they could learn more about the game, find out how to see one of our upcoming games, or to hang out with us for a beverage and conversation.

We were a hit! We had a blast and can't wait to do it again next year. Thank you Shot Caller and Tricky for putting this together. Thanks NASCAR & Auto Club Speedway for welcoming us!

FFF 2016 Season Home Opener

In the Foothill Foxy Flyers' first home bout of the season on March 12th, the Foxettes took on the Coachella Valley Derby Girls at the Rinks-Corona Inline. The first several jams seemed to have both teams dusting off the cobwebs as there were lots of bodies hitting the floor. Even through the cobwebs, both teams managed to make lots of sweet hits and display some pretty fancy footwork.

Lil Bit Feisty and SeaBee did a good job holding the inside and outside lines, hitting jammers out and recycling them back. Sweaty Boop, Regulator and Warship worked well together to hold Coachella's jammers off the line. Cat-taztrofy, Spunkee and SeaBee partnered up to do the same. Foothill's effective blocking paired with jammers who were following their blockers, creating their own holes and strategically calling off jams to limit Coachella's scoring opportunities which gave FFF a bit of a lead as the first half ended.

By the second half, the cobwebs were clearly gone and both teams were looking good. The Foxette jammers were dominating the lead jammer charts and the defensive walls were really tightening up. In her first bout, MarSy Attacks was doing a great job working with her teammates. The Foxettes were playing well together.

This was a fun bout to watch and both teams seemed to be having a great time from the first jam to the last. We saw hard hits, hard falls, good plays, good attitudes, plenty of jammer-on-jammer action, and a couple of apex jump attempts. This bout had it all. The Foxettes ended up taking the win with a score of 235 – 139.
